

Luke 6:46-49

What does it mean?

1. To whom is Jesus speaking? How did you figure it out?
2. What impact should 6:46 have on our understanding of the parable?
3. What similarities do you think Jesus wants us to see between the houses? The men building the houses?
4. What differences do you think Jesus wants us to find?
5. If you were to summarize the meaning of this parable in one sentence, what would it be?

How does it apply?

1. Do you ever wrestle with whether or not your house is built upon a solid foundation?
2. How do you wrestle?
3. Are you facing any storms right now? What kind?
4. What are you presently doing to dig your foundation deeper?
5. What would assist you in digging your foundation deeper?
