

Richfield Community Church

Life Group Discussion Questions: Sunday, June 22, 2008

Luke 16:19-31

What does it mean?

1. What's the context of this parable, historical and literary?
2. What does Jesus tell us about the rich man?
3. What does Jesus tell us about the poor man?
4. What are the major contrasts?
5. How would you summarize the meaning of this parable in one sentence?

How does it apply?

1. What lessons about hell can we appropriately draw from this parable? About heaven?
2. What material possessions have the greatest tendency to pull you from Jesus?
3. How do you wrestle with the pull of material wealth?
4. What have you found that most encourages your ability and desire to see things from an eternal perspective?