

Richfield Community Church
Life Group Discussion Questions: Sunday, July 20, 2008
Luke 12:35-40

What does it mean?

1. What admonition does Jesus give in the passage immediately before this one?
2. What is the relationship between the watchfulness of this passage and the worry of verses 22-34?
3. Describe the ideal servants waiting up for their master. What qualities is the master looking for in v. 35-36?
4. What is the point of 12:37 when the parable speaks of the master serving the servants?
5. A 2nd mini-parable involves a thief and homeowner. What is the point?

How does it apply?

1. What kind of “respectable sins” do we often tolerate in our christian groups?
2. What hinders YOU from being ready for the return of the Master?
3. What encouraging ways have you discovered/practiced to cultivate spiritual alertness?
4. What specifically regarding the return of Christ encourages YOU right now?